Gee, But I'd Like To Furnish A Flat For You, Dear.

Lyric by GLEN MAC DONOUGH.

Music by
A. BALDWIN SLOANE.

Moderato Grazioso.

mf p

Ev - 'ry time I call I seem to love you more and more,
Change your "Miss to Miss - us" and I'll let you wear my name,

BOYS. (Humming.) GIRLS. (Humming.) SOLO

Um ____ Um ____ Ev - 'ry wel - come makes me seem more Um ____ Um ____ If you'll on - ly mar - ry me, I'll Copyright MCMX by Chas. K. Harris.

Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
International Copyright Secured

wel - come than be - fore, Makes me ling-er long to stay.
glad - ly do the same, Be each oth-ers one and all.

As I gaze, each mo - ment e - ven sweet - er seems your face,
And we'll build a place with coz - y cor - ners all a - round,

BOYS. (Humming.) GIRLS (Humming.)

Um ____ Um ____ As I gaze at you sur- round - ed
Um ____ Um ____ On an ev - er-last - ing hon - ey

by this home like place Dear, I just can't help but say. ____
moonthen we'll be bound, Liv - ing there in Cu - pid Hall. ____

Refrain.

Gee, but I'd like to fur-nish a flat for you, dear,

Gee, but I'd like to fur-nish a flat for two, dear. A coup-le of chairs, a rug and a mat, A coup-le of plates, A dog and a cat, And oh, what a coup-le of lov-ey doves wed be.

I've got the time the place and the mon - ey too, dear, A coup - le of rooms, A kitch-en and bath will do, dear, I'll fur - nish the love and kiss - es, If you'll fur - nish your-self and be the mis - sus

Gee, I'd like to fur - nish a flat for you. you. D. C.

D. C.