A might-y na-tion hears a ring-ing call to arm, A A might-y na-tion's voice will reach a - cross the sea, And call that draws her sons from cit - y, vale and farm, A cheer the hearts of those who fight for lib - er - ty, A na - tion sends the best of us, a - cross the sea, That the na - tion's prayers will help the weak - er ones a - long, And will rest of us for - ev - er may be free, An while a might - y strengthen them when ev - ry-thing goes wrong, An while a na - tion's na-tion's heart will yearn, — Let's pray that they soon will re - turn. — Won't you sons will do or die, — Let's call to the one up - on high. —

Chorus.

say a prayer — for the boys out there, — For our he-roes o'er — the sea, — In that rag-ing fray, by night and day, — They're fight-ing for you and me, — When they take their stand, — in no man's land, — We know they'll do — their share, — So that we may live, — their lives they give, — Say a prayer for the boys out there. — Wont you —
