BETH SLATER WHITSON'S LATEST "HIT" "WHEN I MET YOU LAST NIGHT IN DREAMLAND"

As near as we can figure Will Rossiter's famous seven-thousand dollar song "MEET ME TO-NIGHT IN DREAMLAND" has already reached ten million of American people, and is still one of the biggest sellers on the market. Just as it was left for Beth Slater Whitson to create that song, so it has been left for her to write the answer song—"WHEN I MET YOU LAST NIGHT IN DREAMLAND". I am sure this title appeals to you as it goes to me, and everyone of her millions of friends will be anxious to get a copy of this "Answer" song—as I am sure we are all interested to know just what happened "The Dreamland Girl". Beth Slater Whitson has written one of the best lyrics of her career and you'll enjoy every word, every line. The music is by our favorite composer of "songs that sell", W. R. Williams, who is already so well known to you that it's not necessary to dwell on his success; except to say that his "LOVELAND" song is one of the big "hits" of this year. As the publisher of "WHEN I MET YOU LAST NIGHT IN DREAMLAND", I can say that the first forty-thousand copies of this song were sold in less than thirty days, which is a new record for "new" songs—when you stop to realize that forty-thousand copies were sold even before this song was sung in public—you may know the song must be in the "wonder" class and is going to be another "PHENOMENAL SELLER". With these facts we're printing a thematic of the chorus and just as a favor to all concerned, we want you to play and sing this chorus over four or five times—maybe more—and you'll then be just as enthusiastic as all our other friends and make it your business to get a complete copy at once. The title page contains a late portrait of Reine Davies and it's printed in colors. If you pride yourself on being up-to-date in popular songs, then you'll add this one to your collection to-day. Don't forget the title.

the world over. It's these facts and conditions that are the backbone of the Irish race to-day. When you sing them a song that carries 'em back to childhood days such as this little song "WHERE THE RIVER KENMARE FLOWS" you know you touch the soft spot in their hearts and you know they won't rest until they have that song in their homes so they can all get around the piano and sing it. This song is written by one of our most successful popular song writers and right at this very moment is making a big hit on the American Vaudeville stage. The story is true and the music is Irish and just as sweet and pretty as it could possibly be. If you or any of your family attend the Vaudeville Theatres, you'll hear it and then know for yourself the song is "allright" even if (some-times) sung poorly, and there are lots of so-called professionals who are "poor singers". But we don't want to interest you in any singer but in one of the very best little songs ever written

DON'T SAY GOODBYE

By Beth Slater Whitson
and W. R. Williams

Here is a beautiful little song. Quite new, as you'll see by the copyright. But it's starting off splendidly and seems to have struck the public's fancy. You see it's written by two of our most successful writers and contains that heart interest we all love to find 'n a song. Because we understand it better. One critic said, "One can almost see the tear drops when you hear the melody." You will enjoy it.

Chorus

In this new ballad we believe we have one of the world's greatest subjects that was ever woven into a song. The subject is a world wide one and big enough for wonderful problem play. It's a theme far reaching, and we doubt if there's another writer of American songs who could handle it in such a finished and artistic manner as has our friend W. R. Williams. This is a song that will become a wonderful favorite, because it's a page from life, and one so many can understand. We are printing the chorus here so you can try it over several times and judge for yourself that it's really and truly a wonderful song. You really can't afford to be without the big things from America's foremost writer of songs, W. R. Williams.

I NEVER KNEW A HAPPY DAY 'TILL I MET YOU

A year or so ago W. R. Williams created quite a sensation in the song world with his song "GEE BUT THERE'S CLASS TO A GIRL LIKE YOU". He now offers for your most serious consideration another new song "I NEVER KNEW A HAPPY DAY 'TILL I MET YOU"

Willa Holt Wakefield, New York's society and stage entertainer, in being shown this song said, "Mr. Rossiter it is one of the best and I believe the strongest lyrics I have ever read, every line means so much". This criticism coming from Willa Holt Wakefield who owing to her high position in the theatrical world is simply flooded with all kinds of songs, means a great deal. Miss Wakefield knows a "great" song when she reads one, because she's a "great" artist.

Remember these songs the "best" there are, cost you no more than the trash, that's another wonderful feature of this progressive day
