My Dear Mr. Skidmore;-

Have gone carefully over your song "SING ME THE MELODY OF LOVE" while of course I cannot use it in my act (using my own Ballads exclusively) I consider your song A CORKER and take great pleasure in predicting a great success for you, not only in this particular case but in all your work I have seen,

Most Cordially Yours

Ernest R Ball.

The blos-soms sing love to the sun shine, The spring time sings love to the rose, Each bird in the tree, sings a grand sym-pho - ny when the long sum-mer day takes re - pose; The night-time sings love to the moon - beams while stars glow and twin-kle a - bove, And when twi-ght is fall - ing my heart, dear, is call - ing, Sing me the mel - o - dy of Love.
