ON A SUNDAY EVENING IN THE SUMMER TIME

By

Edw. O'Conner

GRINNELL BROS.
DETROIT MICH.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS

MOTHERLY LOVE

A Reverie.

EDMUND BRAHAM, Op. 381.

Andantino.

Copyright MCMX by Grinnell Bros., Detroit.

ON A SUNDAY EVENING

IN THE SUMMERTIME.

By EDW. O'CONNER.

INTRO.

Tempo di Valse.

Copyright 1910 by Grinnell Bros., Detroit.

time when our pleas-ures are sweet-est of treas-ures In sum · mer - right time to woo lit - tle girl - ie and you In the sum - mer - time;_____ When the girl you love best seems to out-shine the rest In the time;_____ It's the time to feel jol - ly on boat or on trol - ley In sum - mer - time,_____ It's the time for some fun when your sum - mer - time,_____ At the close of the day you are week's work is done It's the time for all sweet hearts true._____

hap - py and gay And you're out for a real good time._____

rit.

CHORUS.

On a sun - day eve - ning In the sum - mer - time.

p-f

With your girl you're stroll - ing while the moon's a - shine:

Tell her how you love her whis - per "sweet - heart mine," On a good old sun - day eve - ning In the sum - mer - time.

"My Old Girl"

Words & Music by J. R. SHANNON
Composer of { "Gee! But I've Got the Blues" / "My Spanish Rose," etc

Moderato

mf

I've been aw-ful blue, girl - ie, with-out you, Tell me tru - ly do, when I'm not with you mp

Wond'ring if you would for - get me. Thoughts of by - gone days Do you real - ly, tru - ly, miss me? Do you long to be kept the flame a - blaze Hap - py days when first you met me back a - gain with me, Do you real - ly long to kiss me?

Copyright MCMIX by Grinnell Bros. Detroit, Mich.