

Larratt W. Smith

Jan'y. 1867.

Mabel

adapted to the melody of the Song Waltz.

Mabel BY
D. GODFREY.

Greene, Sc.

5

BOSTON.

Published by Oliver Ditson & Co. 277 Washington St.

J.C. Haynes & Co. Boston.
W.A. Pond & Co. N. York.

Ginn.
J. Church Jr.

C.W.A. Trumpler. Phil^a Lyon & Healy. Chicago.

MABEL.

Written by H.FARNIE.

Music by D.GODFREY.

Allegretto.

PIANO. f

ff

dim. pp

Down the dale,

Where the stream Paus . es in its flowing - - Where no

gale Breaks the dream Of the wild flow'r blowing. - -

There when day Falls to sun . set golden

Ma . bel fair Wends her way By the oak trees ol . den On the tide, Star and flow'r Wreath'd to.

ge . ther glimmer in her bow'r Ma . bel sighs As the day grows dim . . mer. Till a hand Takes her own,

Fond . est words are spoken - - "Maid . en true, Mine a .

cres.

. lone" Then is the sad spell broken - - Down the dale,

f dim. p

Where the stream Paus . es in its flowing Where no gale,

Breaks the dream Of the wild flow'r blowing. - -

mf

The

Listesso tempo.

Village bells faint chiming Hallow their love's young dream For they bring the bridal pp tranquillo.

mor . row In fan . cy o'er the stream . The wild flow'rs on the ri . ver, Tho'

pp

night has made them grey, Seem the bri . dal ro . ses scatter'd By children on their way. Con anima.

One by one the bright stars come out above, As if to bless the maiden's love.

And the

dolciss:
zephyr that lurks where roses blow Whispers a greeting low — Sweet and Piu lento.

low — Sweet and low — Steals the zephyr that lurks where the wild roses

Tempo I!
blow. While the village bells faint chiming Hallow their love's young dream For they bring the bridal morrow In fancy o'er the stream The wild flow'rs on the ri . . . ver, Tho' night has made them grey - - Seem the bri . dal ro . ses scatter'd By chil . dren on their way. - -

Tempo I!
gaiamente. Ah!

There no gale Breaks the dream Of the wild flow'r blowing

To her bow'r When the day Falls to sun . set golden - -

Ma . bel fair Wends her way By the oak trees old . en .

animato
Ah! - - - may all thy life be fair - - - placidamente.

As the heav'n in the stream Bright re . flect ed there!

morendo.
Good night! Oh Ma . bel sweet, good calando.

night! - - -

dim.