Take my head on your shoulder, Daddy, Turn your face to the west, It is just the hour when the sky turns gold, The hour that mother loves best. The day has been long with - out you, Daddy You've been such awhile a - way, And poco accel.

now you're as tir'd of your work Daddy, As I am tir'd of my play; But a tempo.

I've got you And you've got me, So ev' ry thing seems right; I think it's none of it true, Till I fall a-sleep to dream, Daddy, Of home and mother and you For I've got you, and you've got me, So ev-'ry thing may go, We're all the world to each other, Daddy, For mo-ther, dear mo-ther once told me so. I'm sometimes a - fraid to think, Daddy, When I am big like you, And you are old and grey, Daddy, What you and I would do, If, when we got up to Hea - ven, And mo - ther was wait - ing there, She shouldnt remember the two she left, So sad and so lone - ly here! But year by year still sees no change, And so 'twill all be
