ActionForge: Designing and Piloting Git-Forge Infrastructure for Accessible Collaborative Review and Governance

Technical report

Author: Melanie Baljko

Project: ActionForge / MCIPA Demedicalize Accommodation

Report status: Working draft. This version establishes the technical contribution, source base, bounded claims, and report structure.

Suggested citation: Baljko, M. (2026). ActionForge: Design and Implementation of a Provenance-Bearing Feedback Pipeline for Collaborative Revision (Technical report, working draft).

1. Abstract

ActionForge is a prototype contribution interface and provenance-bearing feedback pipeline layered over GitHub for collaboratively revising public documents. It is intended for community and advocacy collaborators who may contribute to a living public resource but are not expected to hold GitHub accounts, understand repository navigation, or use developer-oriented issue workflows.