

Reta G. Gale
Oct. 19. 1916.

THEY HEARD THE CALL OF THE MOTHERLAND

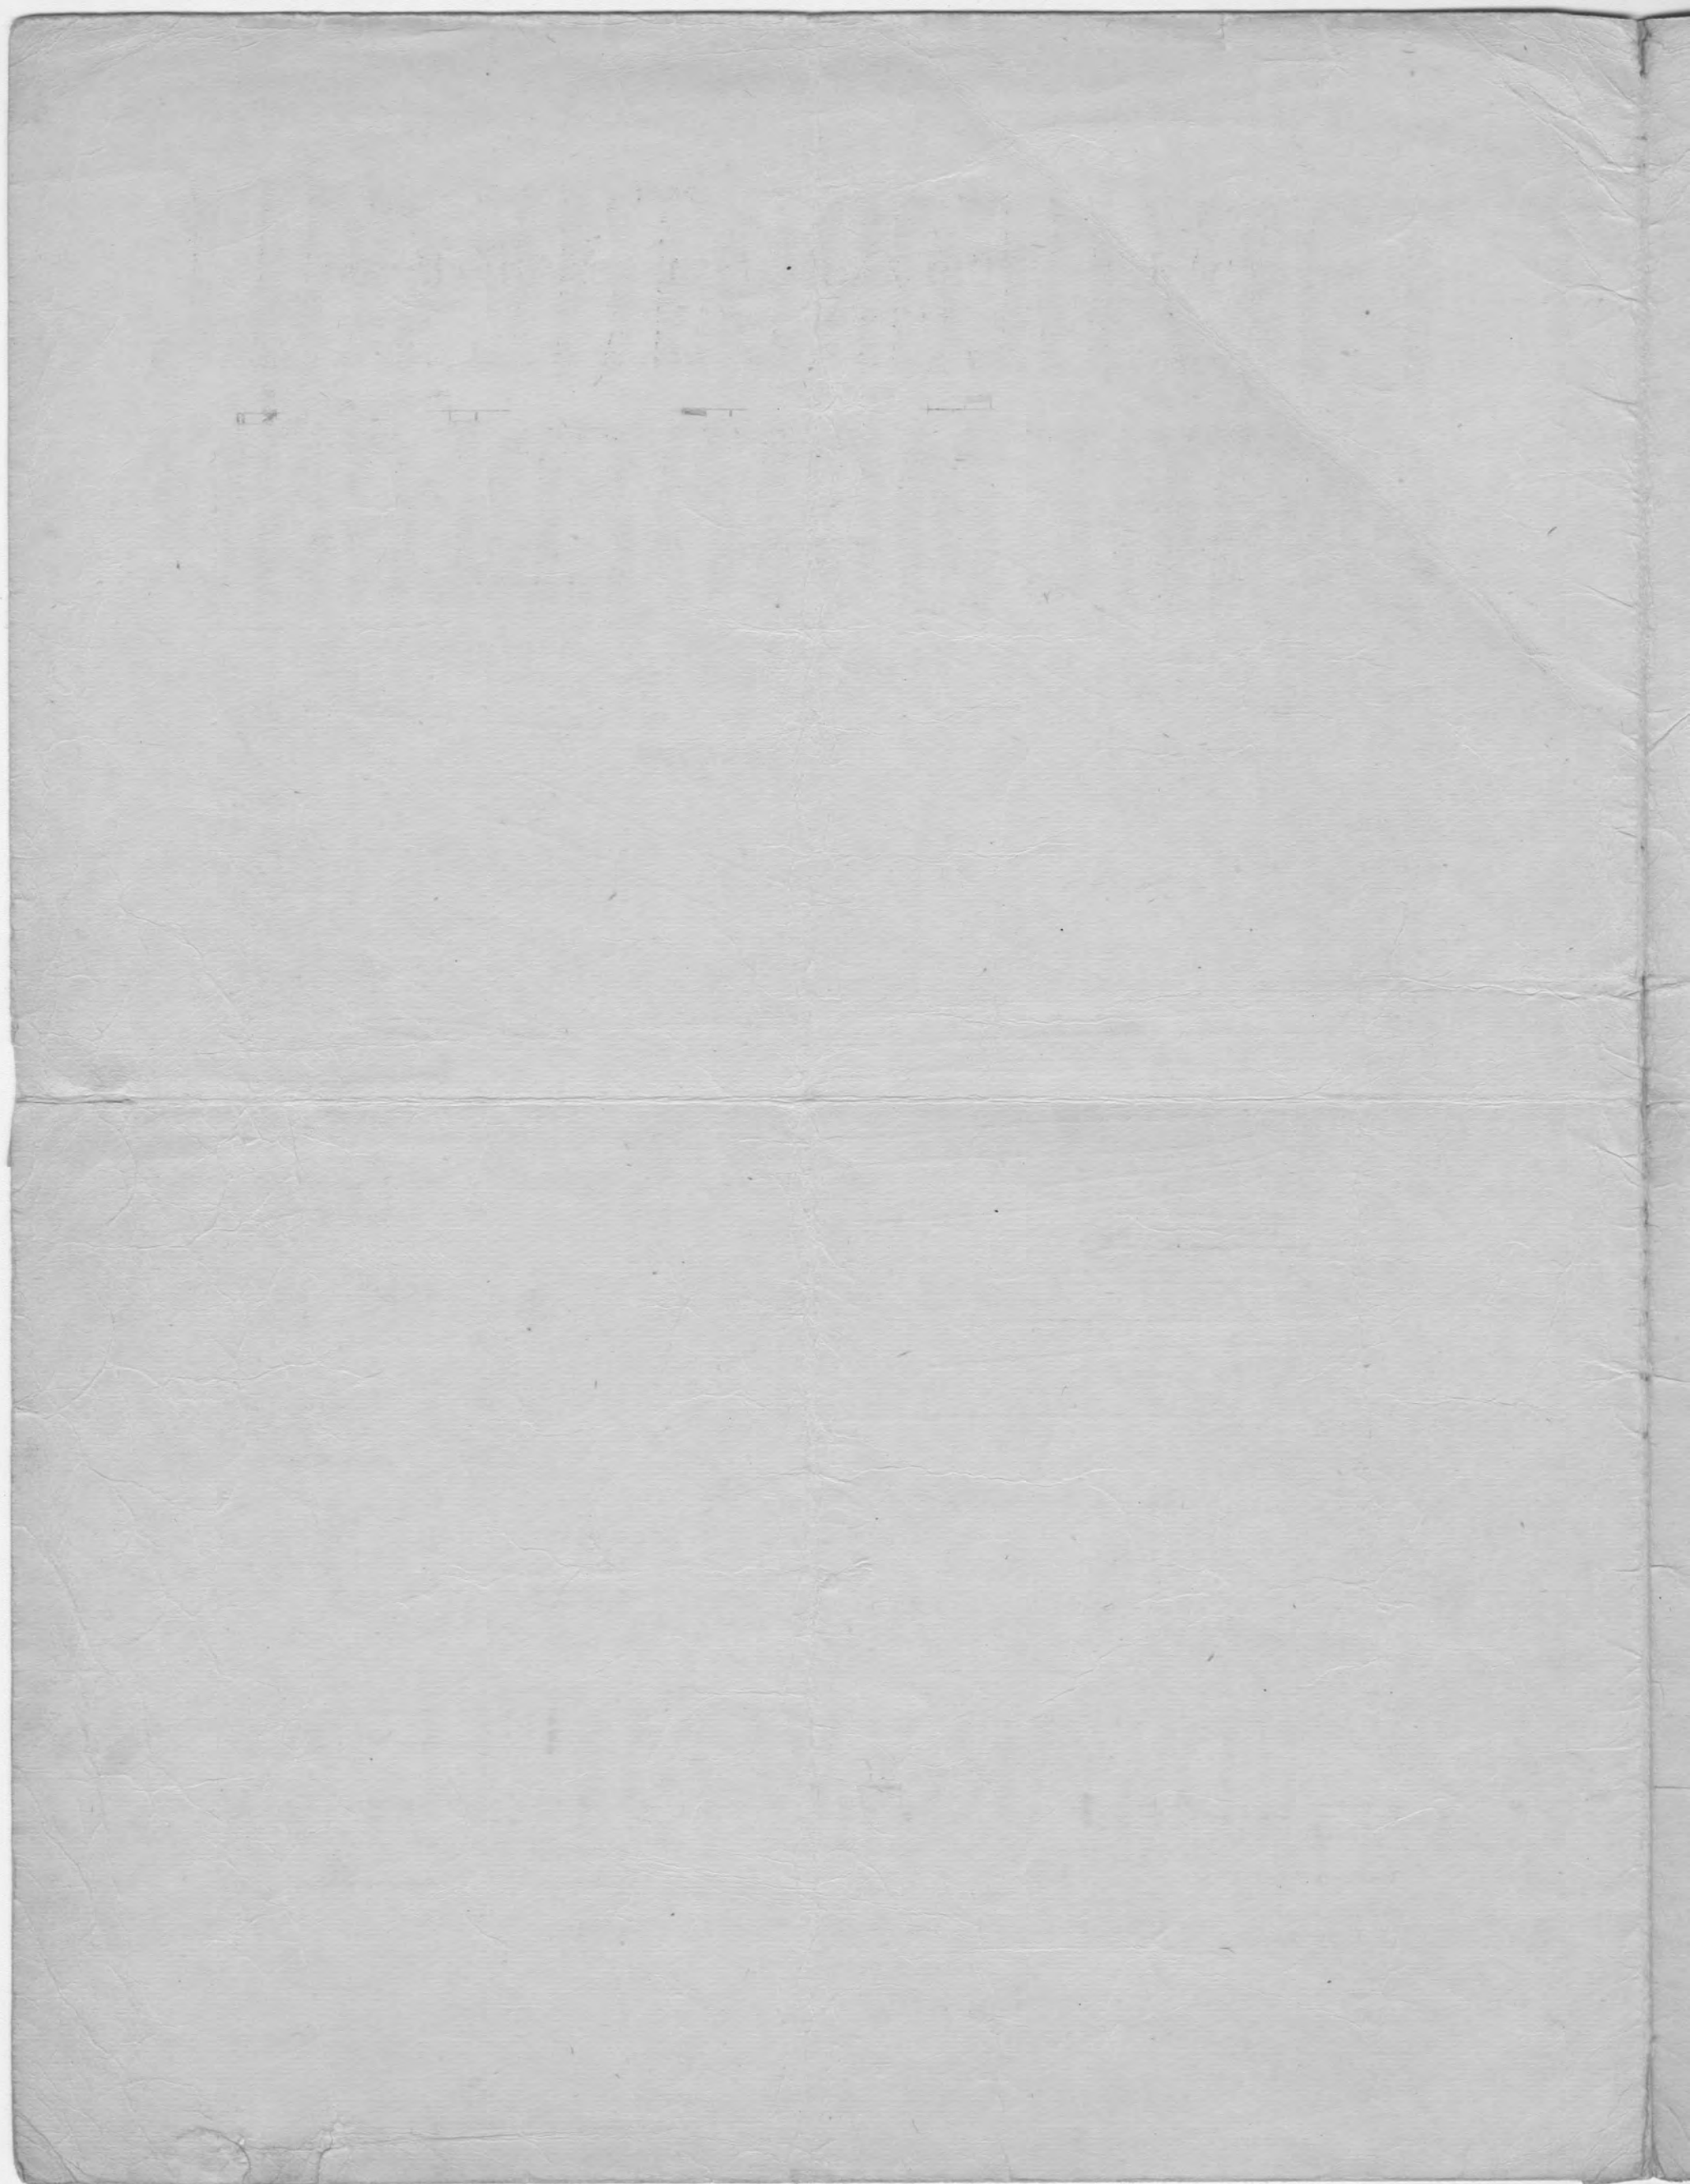

(THE MEN OF THE MAPLE LEAF)

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY
EDWARD W. MILLER

THE ANGLO CANADIAN MUSIC PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION
LIMITED
TORONTO - CANADA

P. C. TREBILCOCK
A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF ALL THE
LEADING MAGAZINES AND PERIODICALS
Street & Smith's Publications & Special Bowmanville, Ont. Can.

They Heard the Call of the Motherland

3

(The Men of the Maple Leaf)

Marcia

Words and Music by Edward W. Miller

PIANO

For-ward, ye men of the Ma-ple Leaf, Hark to the beat of the What of the men of the Ma-ple Leaf, When they are far o-ver drum _____ Bri-tain to-day is thick in the fray, And sea _____ Strong in the right they en-ter the fight, For

Bri-tain bids you come; _____ See the bat-tal-ions go Jus-tice and Li-ber-ty; _____ For those who fall in the

Copyright, Canada
U. S. Copyright

MCMXVI by the Anglo Canadian Music Publishers Ass'n Limited

march-ing by, Com-ing from East and West, bit - ter strife, Pride shall out weigh our grief

Can - a - da heard and made re - ply, And Can - a - da gave her
Deathless their name and bright their fame, The Men of the Ma - ple

CHORUS

best: They heard the call of the Moth - er - land, As it Leaf:

came a - cross the sea, "Fall in! Ye men of

Can-a - da, ——— And face the foe with me!" ——— From bench and desk and plough they came, And proud - ly took their stand ——— And one and all, they an - swer'd the call of the Moth - - er - - land. 1. ——— 2. ——— - land.

