HOWARD CARLTON

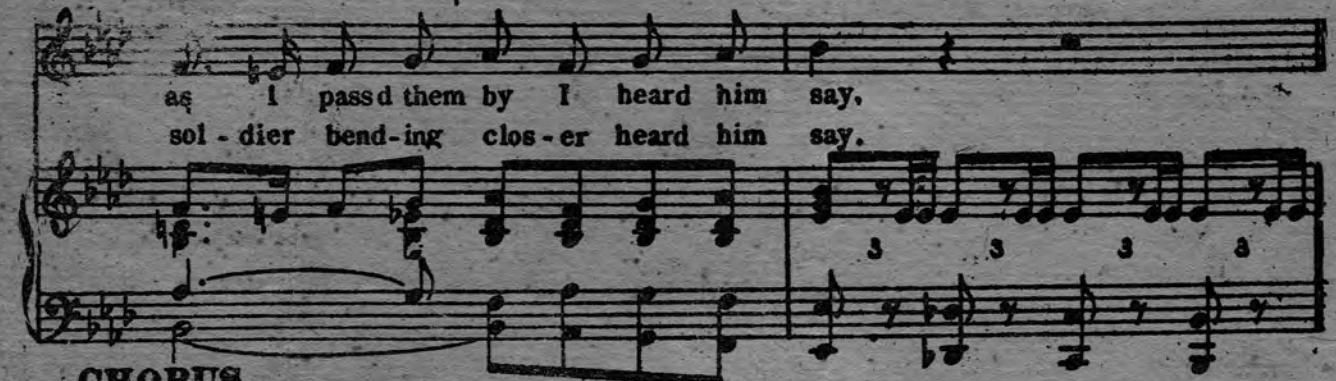

he had known since child-hood hap - py days. A - how they miss'd him since he went a - way. A gainst his fa - ther's stern command he'd join'd the boys so true, And smile came to the lad's pale face and tears be-dim'd his eyes, And the

as I pass'd them by I heard him say,
sol - dier bend-ing clos-er heard him say.

CHORUS.

Tell them I have gone, Tom, Just "good-bye," you know. How I long to see' them,
Not too short.

Once be-fore I go. I will not be here, Tom, At to-mor-row's dawn.

When you see the folks at home, Tom, Tell them I have gone.
