WHEN THE MOON COMES OVER THE LONELY PINE

Words by Aloysius Wolf.

MUSIC BY

H. T. AYRES

ARRANGED BY J. ROSEMARIN

PROFESSIONAL COPY
Not to be Sold
May Be Rendered Free

EMPIRE PUBLISHING CO.
270 ST. CATHERINE STREET WEST
MONTREAL, Que.

Copyright 1934 by ALOYSIUS WOLF

When The Moon Comes Over The Lonely Pine

Words by Aloysius Wolf

Music by H. T. Ayres
Arr. by J. Rosemarin

M. ♩ = 80

You prom-ised to give me your an-swer to-night, When I meet you, my dear, at the ball. ___ But we'll leave when the danc-ing is at its height And we'll meet by the gar-den wall. ___ We'll meet when the moon climbs up in the sky, We'll meet 'neath the lone-ly pine, ___ We'll kiss when none of the crowd is nigh, We'll leave them to dance and dine. ___

Made in U. S. A.

Chorus

When the moon comes o - ver the lone-ly pine, I'll be wait- ing there for you. ——— And by its mel - low silv' - ry light We'll plight our prom - ise true. ——— The time is ten, the girl is you, The place is the lone-ly pine ——— I will be wait-ing for you then, So come, sweet - heart, and be mine. ——— mine. ———

1.

2.