

Take me back to My Sunny Southern Home

Words and Music by Dora Carpenter Kenyon

Writer of

*"My Homeland Dakota"
"She's My Western Girl"
"Come on Ye Boys of Canada"
"When our Gallant Boys come Marching Home again"
"Take me back to my Sunny Southern Home"
"Flowers of the Northland, Waltz"*

*Published by Dora Carpenter Kenyon
132 Elmwood Ave.,
London . . . Ont.*

Take Me Back to My Sunny Southern Home

Words and Music by
DORA CARPENTER KENYON

Lento

Take me back to my sun - ny south - ern
Take me back to my sun - ny south - ern
Take me back to my sun - ny south - ern home Let me hear its gen - tle zeph - yrs soft - ly sigh home Let me see the old brick farm - house in the lane home Let me feel its gen - tle zeph - yrs ere I die

Where the night - in - gale is sing - ing and the sweet mag - nol - ia blooms On the dear old
On that grand old southern homestead where the cane and corn will grow Let me see the
And beneath the fra - grant blossoms of the old mag - nol - ia tree In the shel - ter

CHORUS

rit

home plan-ta-tion let me lie. cot-ton waving once a-gain. Take me home, take me home, to that fair..... be-of its branches let me lie.

rit

lov-ed spot, Let me see the dar-kies danc-ing on the green,

Let me hear the ban-jo tum-ming and the wild bees gai-ly

rit

hum-ming Take me back to my south-ern home to die.

rit