There's A Little Spark Of Love Still Burning

Lyrics by
JOE MC CARTHY

Music by
FRED FISCHER

Moderato

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a series of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The time signature is common time (C). The score includes a vocal melody line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'There was a fire burn-ing I left you laugh-ing when I in my heart, said good - bye, Burn-ing for years and for years, Laugh-ing but no - bo - dy knew'. The piano part includes dynamic markings such as f (forte), sf (sforzando), and p (piano). The score is divided into three systems. The first system is the piano introduction. The second system contains the first two lines of the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The third system contains the next two lines of the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a variety of chords, including triads and dyads, and some more complex figures in the right hand. The vocal melody is simple and easy to sing, with a range of about an octave. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support for the vocal line.

TWO OF THE BIGGEST SONG HITS

AS ADVERTISED IN

"THE SATURDAY EVENING POST"

"You Can't Go Wrong With a 'Feist' Song"

"I Want to Go to Tokio"

Let Joe McCarty and Fred Fischer take you on the pleasantest trip in many a day—To Tokio.

See the little sweetheart, "Ho, Yo-San," across the sea—beneath the bamboo tree, sitting on a Jap-a-(k)nee.

There have been many quaint Japanese songs written before, but never one so good as "I Want to Go to Tokio."

Here's how good a song "Tokio" is: You sing it once at a party or "song-fest"—it is good for all night. "I Want to Go to Tokio" is that good!

"I sing a-high a-lee a-low"—which begins and ends the chorus—is a catchy bit of irresistible, tuneful, Oriental melody.

These pieces may also be procured for your Talking Machine or Player Piano. Orchestra leaders will gladly play them on request.

CHORUS

I sing a-high sing-a-lee sing a-low, That means I want to go to To-ki-o,

I got a sweet-heart who's wait-ing for me, That's why I want to be near the

Bam-boo Tree When the lanterns are a-glow-ing,

"I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be a Soldier"

There'd be no war today
If mothers all would say—
"I didn't raise my boy
To be a soldier!"

Here's the first anti-war song. A "made in America" hit. It's the song you've been waiting for. It's not the song of Militarism—it's a Mother's big-hearted appeal for the life of her boy; yes, and for the life of every mother's "pride and joy."

"I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be a Soldier" is a gripping, powerful message for eternal Peace.

It bids fair to far outstrip "Tipperary" in popularity.

By Alfred Bryan and Al Piantadosi.

CHORUS

I didn't raise my boy to be a sol-dier, I brought him up to be my pride and joy, Who dares to place a mus-ket on his shoul-der, To shoot some oth-er moth-er's dar-ling boy?
