

The CasP Project: Past, Present, Future

A presentation by

Shimshon Bichler and Jonathan Nitzan

The study of capital as power began when we were students in the 1980s and has since expanded into a broader project, involving a growing number of researchers

and
new
areas
of inquiry.
The
presentation
explores
what we have learned
so
far,
reviews
ongoing
research
and suggests
future
trajectories
including
the
coevolution
of
concepts
and
modes
of
power;
the
origins
of
capitalized
power;
the
state
of
capital;
finance
as
symbolic creordering

capitalism; the role of labour, production and waste; the capitalized environment; and the need for post-capitalist accounting.

Shimshon Bichler teaches at colleges and universities in Israel.
