THEN READ THIS CAREFULLY

IT will tell you of an extraordinary offer made by Gus Edwards, a composer of "POPULAR MUSIC OF THE BETTER CLASS," who has given you in the past twelve years, the following songs, pure and simple in lyric and melody, and written purposely for the home. Mr. Edwards makes it a point to write songs for the home, especially those to interest the children, and serve as part of their education. The following is the list of songs unequalled by any American Composer:

"I CAN'T TELL WHY I LOVE YOU, BUT I DO."
"I'LL BE WITH YOU WHEN THE ROSES BLOOM AGAIN."
"ALABAMA." ('WAY DOWN YONDER IN THE CORNFIELD.)
"COULD YOU BE TRUE TO EYES OF BLUE IF YOU LOOKED INTO EYES OF BROWN."
"IN ZANZIBAR."
"I LOVE ONLY ONE GIRL IN THIS WIDE, WIDE WORLD" and "ROSALIE, MY ROYAL ROSIE."
(Both Successes in "The Wizard of Oz" Co.)
"GOOD-BYE, LITTLE GIRL, GOOD-BYE."
"HE'S ME PAL."
"TAMMANY."
"IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE."
"IF A GIRL LIKE YOU LOVED A BOY LIKE ME."
"I JUST CAN'T MAKE MY EYES BEHAVE."
"TWO DIRTY LITTLE HANDS."
"SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART I WANT TO BE."
"I'LL DO ANYTHING IN THE WORLD FOR YOU."
"SEE-SAW."
"THAT'S WHAT THE ROSE SAID TO ME." (Leo Edwards.)

And the most popular song that was ever known in this or any other country, "SCHOOL DAYS." This song has the unique distinction of having been sung by every nation, in every land and in every language. The song that has sold over a million copies. This alone should be a guarantee of what we are about to offer you.

NOW, THEN, FOR THE SUM OF $5 we will make you a member of "GUS EDWARDS' MUSIC LIBRARY." The day we receive your remittance we will send you, postpaid, 12 of our popular pieces, vocal and instrumental, and also everything we issue from the date of your membership card. WE GUARANTEE NOT LESS THAN FIFTY PIECES A YEAR; it is more likely we will publish a hundred pieces the coming year. This year so far we have issued: "Sunbonnet Sue," now unanimously considered the prettiest ballad since "School Days." You no doubt have heard it, and if so, there is nothing more to be said about it. We also published this year the beautiful waltz song, "Everybody Loves Me But the One I Love;" "My Old Lady" (nothing like it since Chevalier's "My Old Dutch"); "Sunburnt Salome," characteristic song; "The Merry-Go-Round Rag," an instrumental piece; "A Little Bit's a Whole Lot Better Than Nothing at All;" "Rose Marie," an Italian love song; "This Rose Brings My Heart to You," a beautiful song by Leo Edwards, the writer of "That's What the Rose Said to Me;" "Tittle, Tattle, Tale;" "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star," and the beautiful classic song "Someday, Sweetheart, Someday."

If in doubt about this extraordinary offer, then send for our catalogue, and you can see at a glance that this is a real, MERITORIOUS offer, and NOT A FAKE, like so many of these things.

We take this means of reaching the home direct, BECAUSE we have found that in hundreds of instances where a customer visited a music store or a music department in one of the large department stores, and asked for a certain piece, and could not get it for reasons best known to the owner of such a department. Instead they would implore you to buy something just as good or similar. There is no reason for any music dealer not having our goods on his counter immediately after it comes off of the press. If you ask for "School Days," you do not want to buy "Nearly School Days." If you wish to purchase "Sunbonnet Sue," you do not want "The Old Oaken Bucket," which the dealer will offer you instead, to make a big profit for himself, because the cost of the substitute is so much less than that of "Sunbonnet Sue."

We intend to establish the largest concern of this kind in the world; in a year we will be in a position to procure for you any piece of music you may desire from any part of the world at the cheapest rate.

Hoping you will become one of the FIRST MEMBERS to help make such a concern possible, we are,

Yours very truly,
