She's A New Kind Of Old Fashioned Girl

Recitation by BILLY ROSE

Just what is wrong with the girl of today?
That's a problem the world has to face;
We blame it on this and we blame it on that,
But we don't seem to get any place.

Nothing is wrong with the girl of today,
Why get away from the truth
Mothers who fret over daughters who pet,
Did the same thing in their youth.
The girl of today is the same little girl
Who used to wear hoop skirts and lace;
She says the same prayers, and the short skirt she wears,
Has nothing to do with the case.

It isn't the lipstick, the cocktails, the jazz,
If some girl should happen to fall;
It's the mother who says, "If you're not home at ten,
You don't have to come home at all."
There's many a girl on the wrong road tonight,
Who could have and would have been good;
And each one of them is a living mistake
Of a parent who misunderstood.

So make a pal of your daughter, tell her what's what,
And don't hide that book on the shelf,
It's the girl who is wise to the ways of the world
Who can always take care of herself!

Back to last two lines of Chorus:

"Just as wise as her brother,
And as good as her mother,
She's a New Kind of Old Fashioned Girl."
