Moderato.

Down the board-walk with the shades of night fall - ing, Wan-ders a pair who have Back thro' the years come the scenes of their child-hood, Mak - ing her smile as she

long lost their youth; Slow - ly they talk, oth - er days they're re - call - ing, clings to his arm; Sun - shine and tears they had shared in the wild - wood,

Days when they first knew the joys of love's truth. Back thro' the past the old Back of the land that her dad used to farm. Time slips a - long and his songs are re-turn-ing, "Love's old sweet song" as the fav - or'd one leads, Hold - ing her tight, his old arm now is steal-ing, 'Round her slim waist, as in days long a - go, Love warm and strong, that the eyes with love burn - ing, "Sing it a - gain," he so ten - der - ly pleads:

time is re - veal - ing, Still fills his heart as he whis - pers so low:

CHORUS.

Allegretto.

Sing love's old sweet song a - gain, dear, Sing love's old sweet song a - gain,

mf

Let me greet mem - 'ries sweet, In the old re - frain.

Tho' for long years we've been part - ed, Thro' much sor - row and much pain,

Still to us at twi - light Comes love's song a - gain.

A very desirable Waltz for those who admire pretty melodies and sweet harmonies;
Very fascinating and brilliant.
