Not too slowly, and with expression

mf poco rit. a tempo

Each night I dream of the Par-a-dise Isles Some-how I yearn for the soft south'rn breeze

mf mp

Set in a crys-tal sea, Each day I think of those happy smiles That soon will welcome
Of my Hawaii-an shore, Sometimes I hear those sweet mel-o-dies Call-ing to me once

poco rall

me, Back to the land where I long to be Back to the girl I long to see.
more, Say-ing come back where hearts still are true Some-one is wait-ing still for you.

mf poco rall

CHORUS.

mp a tempo mf

In Hon - o - lu - lu Far a-cross the deep blue sea, Where I

mp a tempo mf

poco rit. a tempo

met you and you said you'd al-ways wait for me, dear, In dreams,

poco rit. a tempo

it seems, Out there where the sun goes down — Your heart poco rit. a tempo mf 1 2 calls me Back to Hon - o - lu - lu Town. Town. — D. S.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?
LAUGH and the World Laughs With You

This is the theme of Chas. F. Harrison's latest song.

Keep On Smiling,
Till the Whole World Smiles With You

Read the words of the chorus. Don't they seem to hit the spot right now? Wasn't it the Smiling Tommies, the Smiling Poilus and the Smiling Yanks that pulled through when things looked blackest? Now the whole world smiles with them. This isn't a War Song. Nor a Peace Song. But you can sure sing it now, and it applies to all our own little troubles as well as the bigger things in life. Business on the bum? Not for long if you sing this song and follow its motto.

Keep on smiling, Keep on smiling, It's the only thing to do,
For the fellow worth while
Is the one who can smile Though his heart is sad and blue.
And old Worry and Fret Never helped matters yet
But a smile will always pull you through So keep on smiling, just keep on smiling
Till the whole world smiles with you.

Now a word about the music. It's just as bright and full of cheer as the words. Mr. Harrison says the melody came along with the words. Then he gave it to Mr. Weaver to put the dance pep into it. Well, you know Fred! It's some One Step.
