Illustrated for the piano is a very effective concert number.

The musical score is written for piano and orchestra. It consists of five systems of music. The first system features a piano part with a cresc. marking and a forte f dynamic. The second system includes a piano part marked p con grazia and a mezzo-forte mf dynamic. The third system continues with piano p and mezzo-forte mf dynamics. The fourth system is marked piano p. The fifth system includes first and second endings, with the piano part marked forte f. The score is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The piano part is written in treble and bass staves, while the orchestra part is written in a single staff with various instrumental groupings indicated by brackets.

W. R. & Co 169

Grand Success: Edmund Braham. Fleurette Dance. Price 50 cents.

All bands and orchestras are now playing this beautiful composition.

The musical score is arranged in five systems, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The first four systems each contain four measures. The fifth system contains five measures, ending with a double bar line. Dynamics include f (forte) and p (piano). The score features various musical notations such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and chords. There are also some markings above the staff, possibly indicating fingerings or breath marks, and a small 'V' symbol at the end of each system.

W. R. & C^o 169

Grand Success: Edmund Braham. Hermanita Waltzes. Price 50 cents.

All bands and orchestras are now playing this popular waltz.

W. R. & Co 169

Grand Success: Eduard Holst. Seguidilla, Spanish Dance. With castanet, triangle and tambourine accompaniment. Price 75 cts.
 The above composition of Eduard Holst is now being successfully played by Sousa's and Victor Herbert's Gilmore's band and all other leading bands and orchestras.
