In Quick marching time.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 6/8 time, marked 'In Quick marching time.' The introduction consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system has a treble clef with a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass clef with a simple harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano introduction ends with a double bar line. The vocal part begins with two verses. The first verse is: 'I leave my home and thee, dear, With sor-row in my heart, It'. The second verse is: 'And yet my heart is sore, love, To see thee weep-ing thus, But'. The piano accompaniment for the vocal part consists of two systems. The first system has a treble clef with a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass clef with a simple harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano accompaniment ends with a double bar line. The vocal part continues with two more lines of music. The first line is: 'is my coun-try's call dear To aid her I de-part. And'. The second line is: 'mark me there's no fear, love, For in hea-ven is my trust. And'. The piano accompaniment for these lines consists of two systems. The first system has a treble clef with a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass clef with a simple harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano accompaniment ends with a double bar line.

1. VER: I leave my home and thee, dear, With sor-row in my heart, It
2. VER: And yet my heart is sore, love, To see thee weep-ing thus, But is my coun-try's call dear To aid her I de-part. And mark me there's no fear, love, For in hea-ven is my trust. And on the bor - der bat - tle field, We'll con - quer or we'll die, ... 'Tis if the hea - vy drooping tear, Swells in my mourn - ful eye, ... It for our hon - our and our name, We raise the bat - tle cry is that E - rin's sons should band, To raise the bat - tle cry

CHORUS.

AIR. Then weep not, dear - est, weep not, If in her cause I fall, O
ALTO. I fall, I fall, O
TENOR. Then weep not, dear - est, weep not, If in her cause I fall, I fall, O BASS.

weep not, dear - est, weep not, It is my coun - try's call....

weep not, dear - est, weep not, It is my coun - try's call....

3.

Our homes have been assailed dear,
 By a rabble lawless band,
 Fanatics raised the cry, dear,
 And schemers fired the brand.
 Our boys they spurn the invaders' yoke,
 The Fenian threats defy,
 They'll find we've hearts of British Oak,
 To raise the battle cry.

CHORUS — Then weep not, dearest, &c.

I knew you'd let me go pet,
 I saw it in that tear,
 To join those gallant men pet,
 Who guard our vast frontier.
 The "Union Jack" we'll bear aloft,
 In deeds of valor vie,
 For Canada our home love,
 Shall be our battle cry.

CHORUS — Then weep not, dearest, &c.
