POOR LITTLE LOST SISTER

DAVE
MANLEY

PUB. BY

HUGO HAMLIN

—·BOSTON·—

SOLE AGENTS: KNICKERBOCKER MUSIC CO., 18 BOYLSTON ST. BOSTON, MASS

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO

Respectfully dedicated to E·M·C·

WHAT WOULD THIS WORLD BE WITHOUT YOU

By HUGO HAMLIN &
DEAN WILTON

REFRAIN

f

What would this world be with - out you, What charms would it hold for me, An emp - - ty world, an emp - ty life, Withmarcato rall. a tempo

out a dream, a dream of thee, If the

Copyright MCMXIII by Hugo Hamlin

Published by the Knickerbocker Music Pub. Co. Boston, Mass.

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES

Hugo Hamlin's Hit for 1915

POOR LITTLE LOST SISTER

Respectfully dedicated to my sister ROSE

DAVE MANLEY

Moderato

Copyright, 1914, by Hugo Hamlin

long - ing and yearn - ing For some - one's re - turn - ing Calls her Moth - er is cry - ing Her Broth - er is sigh - ing And if son to her side And whis - per's "my dear."

God sends her back She'll ne'er roam a - gain.

CHORUS

Please find poor lit - tle lost sis - ter _____ Please bring her home some day _____ Just tell her how I have missed her _____ How I'm grow - ing old and gray _____ Some where in this world you'll meet her _____ With a fond em - brace you'll greet her _____ If you'll sing one song of her dear old - fash - ioned home _____ Poor lit - tle lost sis - ter will come home to stay.

J. Worley Co., Boston, Mass.

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO
REMEMBER

Arranged by
H. HOWARD CHENEY

Words and Music by HUGO HAMLIN

CHORUS

When you're grey and old And your heart's grown cold With no one your sor - rows to tell Tho' I'm far a - way

When you think of me Re - mem - ber! Re - mem - ber that

1 I loved you well.

2 I loved you well.

Copyright, 1914, by Hugo Hamlin

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES