My Heart Has Learned to Love You

Now Do Not Say Good-Bye

A BEAUTIFUL SONG

DAVE REED

and

ERNEST R. BALL

have in this song another that will add to their reputation as two of the most successful writers of to-day. Authors who can turn out such successes as "Love Me and the World is Mine," "To the End of the World With You," "My Dear," "I'd Live or I Would Die for You," "As Long as the World Rolls On," "The Door of Hope," etc., etc., surely know how to write a ballad, and in this, they have again shown their superiority as masters of their craft. It is an inspiration, and will surely add another rung to their already great ladder of success in the song writing world.

In A^b, E^b to F

Small range—anyone can sing it.

REFRAIN. Slowly with expression.

My heart has learned to love you, Now do not say good bye; You filled my life with fond-est hopes, In child-hood days gone by. Were you to leave me now, dear, My ver-y soul would die! My heart has learned to love you, Now do not say good-bye.
