

amount of major North-American accounts, large, including Ford, Helena Rubenstein and Kaiser-Frazer.

You will undoubtedly wonder why I have come to this country, having been successful in my own. The answer is quite simple—Canada is a desert, culturally—and the United-States too much of a hungry monster. England seems the happy medium. Therefore, here I am, and here I intend to stay!

If you decide to see my work, I am certain it will not disappoint you. Perhaps it may be exactly what you are seeking. In any case I would be very pleased ^{to show} ~~to hear from you~~ a few specimens to you for the artist

be something that you

Sincerely

Allan Fleming

82 Onslow Gardens, London S.W. 7— Kensington 5910

Alan Fleming

Alan Fleming

Alan Fleming