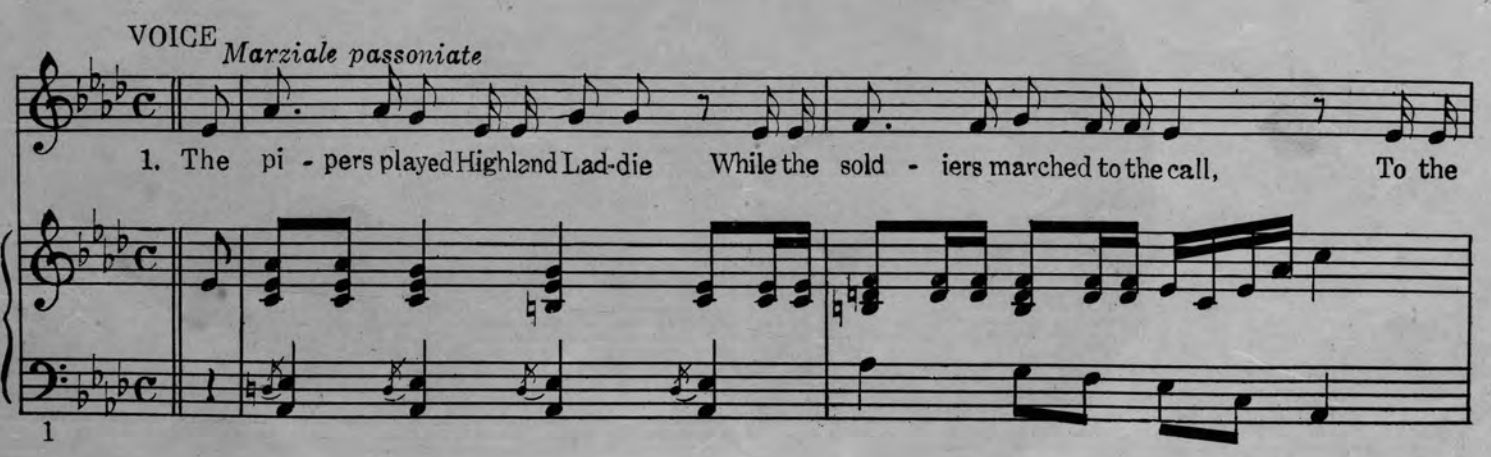
Canada's Gallant Forty Second

Voice and Piano with Violin Obligato

LARKIN CRAIG CHANDLER



place where the ship was an - chored, In St. Lawrence at Mont - re - al; Their friends had all as - sem - bl'd To bid their heroes good - bye, Most

rit. ad lib.

ev' - ry one who stood there Had a tear drop in his - eye.

CHORUS

O Can - a-da! Dear Can - a-da! Nob'lest of Brit - ain's sons, Follow! Oh! fol - low our he - roes! As these brave lads have done. O Can - a-da! Dear

Can - a - da! Nob-'lest of Brit - ain's sons,

rit. ad lib.

Fol - low! Oh! fol-low our he - roes! As these brave lads have done.

2. They all were sad - ly wait-ing For the ship to sail out of sight, To bear a - way our gal-lants To fight for Brit - ain's rights And as the ship de - part - ed Out o'er the wa-ter's swell We

rit. ad lib.

heard our brave boy s' voi - ces Sad - ly sing-ing "Good-bye Blue Bell."

Repeat CHORUS.