WELCOME HOME

(Great War Veterans Song)

Words by

RUBY CUNNINGHAM

Music by

EDWARD · W · MILLER

TORONTO:
The Anglo-Canadian Music Publishers'
Association, Limited
144 VICTORIA STREET

WELCOME HOME

A SONG FOR THE GREAT WAR VETERANS

Words by Mrs. W. E. Cunningham

Music by Edward W. Miller

Moderato

mf

mp

Here's to the he - roes back from the front, Who brave - ly have borne the —
With gal - lant cour - age they marched a - way, Mid bands of — mu - sic and

mp

bat - tle's brunt, Here's to the best the land can give, To the men who have helped the loud hur - ray! With fond good-byes and smiles thru tears, Sad - — smiles we re-mem - ber

Copyright Canada
Copyright U. S. A. } 1917 by Ruby Cunningham

British Copyright Secured

na - tions live: For the sun sets not and ne - ver shall, On the thru long years: And those who re - turn a tale will tell, Of the

poco rit. espressivo

Bri - tish Em - pire we love so well; Then here's to the lads so boys who fought and who brave - ly fell; For man - y a gal - lant poco rit.

rall. molto rit.

tried and true, Who have kept the land for me and you.
life was lost, And for great vic - try paid great cost.

rall. molto rit.

Chorus

p-f Tempo di marcia Not too fast

Then here's to the men who were maimed in the fight, War - riors for lib-er-ty

p-f

God and right, With grate-ful hearts we greet them back, Men who have fought for the U - nion Jack, The Kha - ki_ Lad will al - ways be,

Slower with emphasis

Em - blem to us of li - ber - ty, Our homes and hearts we_ o - pen to rall.

1 2

you ___ Wel - come home, brave lads and true. Then true.

rall.