Sure as you're born. This is the morn, Christ-mas Bells will be a-ring-ing, Call your lit-tle broth-er,

Call your dad and mother, See the sun is red. Not a time for yawn-ing, Christmas day is dawn-ing,

Get them out of bed. What a glo-rious sight they'll see There a-round the Christ-mas tree, Beat-ing on the drum a-rum, tum, tum, The Toys are on pa-rade.

CHORUS

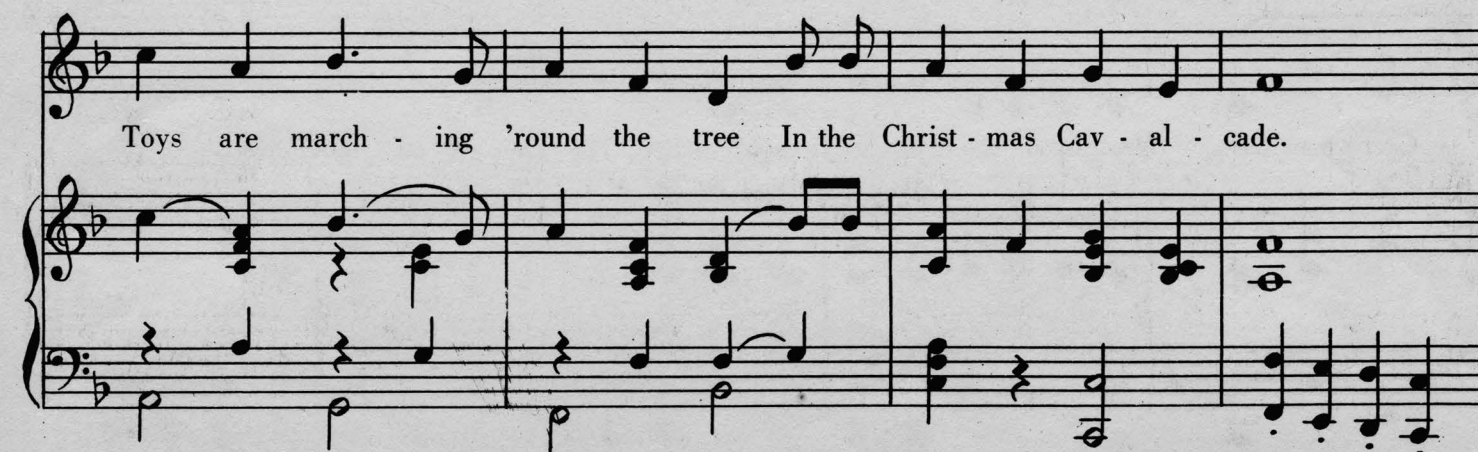

Up bright and ear - ly Christ - mas morn, Wake 'em up with a toot of your horn, They'll heed the call, They're sure to fall For the Christ - mas Cav - al - cade.

Peep in the par - lor qui - et - ly, Hold your breath, what a sight you will see, The Toys are march - ing 'round the tree In the Christ - mas Cav - al - cade.

(Boy) Now come the sol - diers brave and true, Jack - in - the - box is ve - ry blue.
 (Girl) Now come the dol - lies fair and dark, See how they smile, Oh, what a lark!

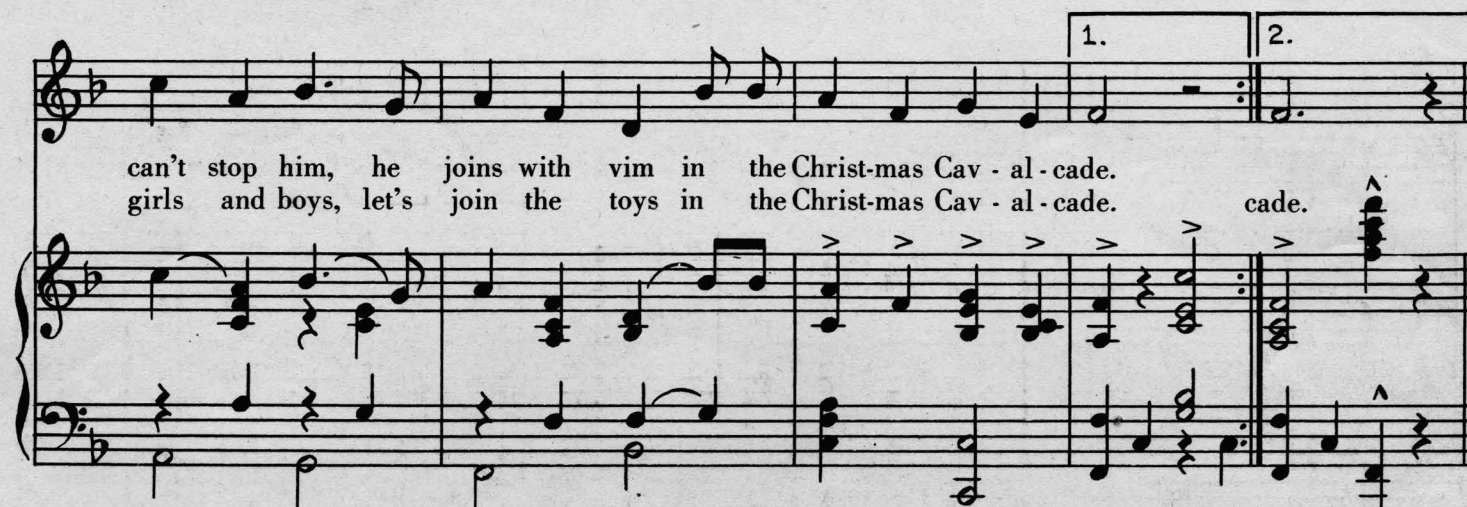

(Together)

In such a box, what can he do To join in all the fun?
 Dane-ing a - round old No - ah's Ark. The an - i - mals all stare.

Up goes a lit - tle lead toy cop, Shakes the tree, Jack - ie goes a ker - plop, They Now while a wee toy trum - pet's played, Let's all join in a mer - ry pa - rade. Come,
