"SUMMER DAYS!"

THE BIG SUMMER "SONG-HIT!"

By McCARTHY AND PIANTADOSI.

EXTRA CHORUSES.

Summer days, those good old summer days,
When you get that notion to dive in the ocean;
Summer days, those good old summer days;
You take your girl in swimmin'—How I love the women!
Summer days, those dear old summer days,
We're happy kids, always;
Oh! you Soda Fountains—Oh! you Catskill Mountains,
In those summer days!

Summer days, those good old summer days;
Time for baseball weather—see them get together!
Summer days, those dear old summer days—
Look out! he's stealing—hey! they made a double play!
Summer days, those good old summer days—
We're crazy fans, always!
Gee! I'm always itching to see Matty pitching,
In those summer days.

Summer days, those good old summer days;
Time for honeymooning; let us go ballooning;
Summer days, those good old summer days;
"Oh, please grab me that star!" "All right, Kid; here you are!" "Thanks!"
Summer days, those good old summer days,
We're happy kids, always.
Oh! look; Ain't that pretty? Yes; that's Atlantic City
In those summer days!

Summer days, those good old summer days;
Your wife takes a vacation; Then there's some sensation.
Summer days, those good old summer days,
While some nice blonde you're pickin'; You feel like a chicken;
Summer days, those good old summer days,
We're happy kids, always.
Oh! you summer widow; Oh! you champagne "kiddo,"
In those summer days!
