1 You said good - bye, the part-ing words were spok - en, I leave you now, per-haps 'tis bet - ter 2 You've left me now, I nev - er more will see you, Those happy days of old must now de - 3 I dreamt last night a pret-ty lit - tle star - ling Came softly tap - ping on my window so I gave you back each ten - der lit - tle tok - en, And far a - cross the seas then I may part, The true fond love I once be-stowed up - on you, Has flown a - way from me like cu-pid's blind, And in its bill a mes-sage from my dar-ling, Which said that you'd re - call those words un-go, Oh, can it be, from love you have re-leased me, And that my love has al - ways been in dart, Oh, yes, 'tis so, from love you have re-leased me, Such drea - ry thoughts have caused me grief and kind, And in my heart love ne'er can be a stran-ger, So drea - ry thoughts have ceased to give me vain, Ah when your love has conquered pride and an - ger, I know that you will call me back a - gain.

pain, I love you still, such love will live for ev - er, I know that you will call me back a - gain.
pain, I love you still, such love will live for ev - er, I knew that you would call me back a - gain.
