He sat and munched a - way and nev - er thought she spied him,
"I'm sor - ry lit - - tle girl!" the boy said soft - ly sigh - ing,

Till with a long - ing sigh she came and sat be - side him, Then "All of it's gone I fear!" then saw that she was cry - - ing, "Don't tak - ing up his stick - y hand, she bent her fluf - fy head, And cry!" he whis-pered, "and per - haps I'll let you kiss me twice!" The ro-guish eyes, to his sur - prise, smiled at him as she said:-

lit - tle mai - den dried her eyes and said, "That will be nice!"

Dear lit - tle jam - my face, I love you so! I
"Dear lit - tle jam - my face, I love you so! I wish I were your sweet - heart or your mam - - - - my!

wish I were your sweet - heart or your mam - - - - my!

Just what the rea - son is, Sure I don't know! Un - If you should ask me, dear, I won't say "no" I'll less it is be - - cause your face is jam - - - - my! mar - ry you be - - cause your face is jam - - - - my!

vowed that they would mar - - - ry When they were old e - nough, and sure they did not tar - - - ry,

And, now they of - ten think of how a maid sat knit - - ting,

And by her on the seat a lit - tle boy was sit - - ting, But now there's an - o - ther lit - tle boy who is just the sweet-est thing, And as he sits on mam-my's knee, to him she'll of - ten sing:-

"Dear lit - tle jam - my face, I love you so You're just the ve - ry i - dol of your mam - - - my!

I loved your Dad - dy, dear, Long, long a - - go; And all be - cause his lit - tle face was jam - - - my!"
