Seek-ing the qui - et woods at night, Has un-der-neath a heart like ours.
Lis-ten to the leaves, Birds up in the trees Let us put in words All we hear the birds Whis-per-ing love mes-sag-es up - on the breeze. From a ti - ny throat, Call-ing to their cho-sen mates in tones of joy, I will sing to you Throbs a yearn-ing note— 'Tis a lov-er sigh-ing for a kiss; As the oth-ers do When they meet the ones that they love best.
poco rall.
She will hear his song, And you'll see ere long How she soft-ly war-bles a re-ply. Please do not de-ny, Try to make re-ply In the gen-tle syl-la-bles of love.

REFRAIN

Oh, these rare nights in the woods; — Let me take you by the mf
p hand, Lead you to the mag-ic land Where all lov-ers un-der-stand How to love and spoon. In this hour of sweet ro-mance, Let us steal a fleet-ing
glance Of a vi-sion that en-chants And breathe the word Love, Love, Love.

When the stars shine in the sky — Let us count them, you and I, And it would not be a p miss If I stole from you a kiss As they bright-ly gleam. Sweet ca-ress im-sf plor-ing, Al-ways you a-dor-ing — I would prom-ise to be true
