Extra Verses of "WE ALL FALL"

(By Alfred Bryan.)

1.

You have heard a man declare,
By the stars above he'll swear,
That he wouldn't wed the best girl ever lived,
Never saw a women yet, single cent from him could get,
Not a dollar to a woman he will give,
But he meets some dried old maid, as homely as a door,
And he'll give her, all his coin, and work to get her more.

To the shore he goes some day,
Just to pass the time away,
Meets a pretty girl and takes her in to dine,
After that she says "goodbye," stung again, you hear him cry,
Like to see some girl fool me a second time.
But he meets this girl again, dressed in a bathing suit,
And he wants to buy her wine, a diamond ring to boot.

3.

Adam was the first to fall,
So the bible tells us all,
When he ate the apple in the long ago,
Mother Eve, she looked so nice, in her clothes of Paradise,
Dear old Father Adam, couldn't answer No,
When he saw what he had done, it gave him such a pain.
Called old Mother Eve aside, and with her he raised Cain.

Willie Jones loved Mamie Kerr,
But he woudn't fall for her,
Tho' she had a pretty form and ankles trim,
Till she bought some fancy hose, left her ankles trim exposed,
Every time they walked, she walked in front of him,
Willie said, let's see them dear, she answered roguishly,
If you want to see them dear, you'll have to marry me.
