

THE NAUGHTY NAUGHTY LITTLE FISH

Words & Music
By JOS. BRUCKNER
FOX TROT

Published By JOSEPH BRUCKNER
207 W. 48th. ST.
NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Naughty, Naughty Little Fish

3

Arranged by HAROLD POTTER

FOX TROT

Words & Music by
JOS. BRUCKNER

Moderato

f

When on the men - u King Sol - o - mon was

f mf mp

you see lit - tle fish - es, — They're in - no - cent and sweet - est of all might - y wise to wom - en, — But al - most an - y lit - tle fish a dish - es But when they're in the sea, — Oh! me, oh! my, oh!

swim - min', Could give him cards and spades, — On col - ors, shapes and me, By Gum oh! gosh! oh! geel, How naugh-ty they can be: shades, For lit-tle fish-es see, A mil-lion kinds of maids:

Chorus

Those naugh-ty lit-tle fish-es, no doubt have lots of wish-es,

E-ven as you and I They're look-ing at the la-dies, their hus-bands and the ba-bies, As the rest of the fish swim

by, _____ Some girls say "poor fish," when they meet a guy that's slow, _____ But they ought to know, what the lit - tle fish - es know, _____ When peo - ple go in swim - min', who is it sees the wom - en', The naugh - ty, naugh - ty lit - tle fish. _____ Those fish. _____