"Just A Girl That Men Forget"

A lesson in song. The truest story ever told. An appealing musical sermon that has won the commendation of press and pulpit throughout the nation. A particularly timely ballad, combining a lyric of unusual sentiment and charm with a melody that is as catchy as it is beautiful.

Here Is The Great Verse

Dear little girl, they call you a vamp,
A flapper with up-to-date ways,
You may shine brightly, but just like a lamp,
You'll burn out one of these days.
Then your old-fashioned sister will come into view,
With a husband and kiddies, but what about you?

Second Verse

Wall flower girl, now dry all those tears,
For you won't be left all alone,
Some day you'll find yourself up on a throne,
Queen of a sweet little home,
And, you gay little flapper, you'll live and you'll learn,
When you've gone down the path-way that has no return.

CHORUS

The musical score for the chorus is written for voice and piano. It is in 3/4 time and B-flat major. The melody is simple and catchy, with a piano accompaniment that features chords and moving lines in both hands. The lyrics are: "You're the kind of a girl that men for-get, Just a toy to en-joy for a - while, For when men set-tle down they al - ways get An old fashioned girl With an old fashioned". The score includes dynamic markings of p-f (piano-forte) and rit. (ritardando).
