Dream-ing of the fu-ture day when she'll be mine, ___ And I'll be hap-py if that girl says "Yes", ___ No oth-er one com-pares with South-ern Bess, ___
And the blue of grass and sky is in her eyes, ___ I'm on-ly wait-ing to go back down there, ___ It's al-ways sum-mer, and the sun shines fair, ___

My heart sighs, ___ my heart cries, ___ For her Ken-tuck-y eyes.
Tho' a part, ___ in my heart, ___ I'm long-ing for those eyes.

Chorus.

It is needless to comment on the success of Alfred Solman's "IF I HAD A THOUSAND LIVES TO LIVE," but many more friends than the above song has won, are acclaiming the spontaneous triumph of the same composer's most recent composition-a ballad of the heart-entitled, "MINE." As simple as it's title, yet most effective for the singer, the song "MINE" is a distinctive feature wherever performed, and is destined to become a favorite with every music lover.
