Girls wear their skirts up to their knees, In my home town.
And you can al - ways find a breeze, In my home town.
We've got a main street like Broad-way, It's half as bright, but twice as gay;
You ver - y sel - dom see a cow, They get their milk in bot - tles now;
And all the gray-haired pa - pas, Have be - come fi - nal - e hop - pers!
You just can't hold the farm - ers, Since they've learned to wear pa - jam - as!

We've got a great po - lice force, too, In my home town,
One fel - low wears a red neck - tie, In my home town,
He wears a un - i - form of blue, In my home town.
Boys tip their hats when he walks by, In my home town.
There's not a drop of hootch in sight, They've got the lid down pret - ty tight, But We've got a man whose name is Zeke, The folks in town call him "the Sheik," He's down at the Elks Club it's al-right, In my home - town." town."
out with a new girl ev-'ry week, In my home town." town."
