Design Charrette

AcTinSite has been busy over the last few months getting ready for our design charrette. This event is a significant milestone for us! Over four afternoons in June, we gathered practitioners and students to brainstorm possible solutions for issues with accessibility and accommodations in work-integrated learning.

Our next steps with the design charrette materials are

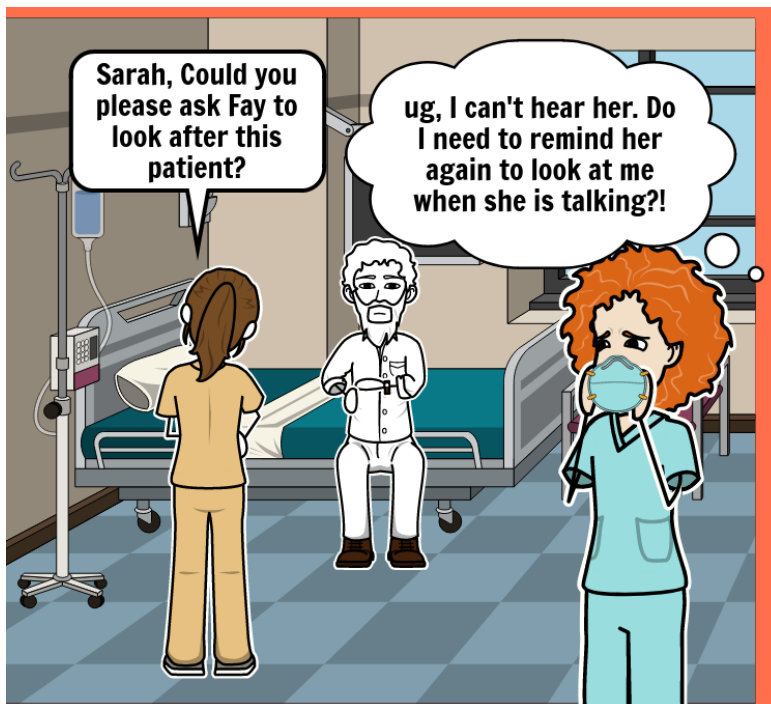

- collate the materials
- begin analysis
- identify possible design
- consult LEEP and partners
- finish a report on the design charrette

Looking Back

The last few months have been exciting and busy for us here at AcTinSite. We had our first lived-experience expert panel (LEEP), at the end of April.

- This panel is where student who have done placement and disabled student gave us feedback on our work.
- This was a wonderful experience that provided us with vital input.
- We are finishing up a report on the feedback and how we used it, which we will share in the next update.

LEEP gave us feedback on our storyboards. One panel from these storyboards is below.

Join Us!

Community of Practice

For practitioners who help students with work-intergrated learning.

Group gathers to share know and skills related to their work.

Lived Experience Expert Panel

For disabled students or people who have done placement.

Guide AcTinSite in it's decision making.

Milestones

First lived-experience expert panel (LEEP) meeting happened at the end of April

Had the spring whole team meeting in May

Presented at the ARIS & RI Summit on combining design and knowledge mobilization.

In May, we had the spring whole team meetings. This meeting is when all-out partners and the research team discuss what AcTinSite has done and plan what will happen in the next six months.

Also, in May, we presented at the ARIS & RI Summit on the work we have done so far, including the connections between design and knowledge mobilization. Here is a PDF of the PowerPoint.

The community of practice (CoP) is slowly getting work done. The needs assessment is polished and ready to share. If you are a practitioner, please take 10 minutes to complete the needs assessment and share it with your networks!

CoP is taking July off to enjoy the summer month and allow AcTinSite to finish its application for the SSHRC Connection grant.

- This grant is designed to support the knowledge mobilisation components of SSHRC funded projects.
- AcTinSite plans to use a successful connection grant to fund CoP activities.

Completed the design charrette in June 2021.

Interview analysis is finishing up!
