"To-day Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond is known as the writer of Songs—words and music which have crept into the hearts of millions. Philosopher, painter, pianist, poetess, composer, interpreter, Mrs. Bond began the publication of her own productions, and from the Bond Shop in Chicago and the Office of Frederick Harris in London, there issues every year hundreds of thousands of her songs."

EDITH BROWN KIRKWOOD in The Chicago Tribune.

APPRECIATIONS.

"I consider your songs so distinctive that it becomes a pleasurable duty for me to sing them myself."

Sincerely your friend,
DAVID BISPHAM.

"No one has written more beautiful melodies or sung herself more completely into the hearts of American music lovers than has Mrs. Jacobs-Bond. The poetry, ideality and sympathetic beauty of her songs are irresistible."

WILLIAM H. SHERWOOD.

"I am very fond of violets and of sweet, fresh morning fields. That is why I like your little songs You have the insight of the seer and the poet; you see deep. Simple things are difficult. There's work in the world for such as you.

Many thousands are awaiting your message"

Very truly yours.
DAVID FFRANGCON DAVIES.

Dear Mrs. Bond:

"I was perfectly charmed to hear your compositions sung by yourself. It has seldom been given to me to hear the poet, composer and interpreter all in one and I wish you all the success that you so richly deserve."

Very sincerely yours,
JEAN DE RESZKE.
