New Songs That Are Different—New Ideas—New Melodies

I'M WALKING 'ROUND IN A CIRCLE

Lyric by Mort Nathan—Music by John Cooper

(Copyrighted 1920 by Cooper's Melody Shop, Los Angeles, Calif. International Copyright Secured)

Take our word for it, there is a real treat in store for you when you get this song, as it will more than please you. The melody has the swing which will make you want to sing the minute you hear it. As a Fox Trot it is great for dancing. Price complete, 30c. net. Orchestration 25c. net.

YOUR LIPS SAY YOU LOVE ME, Song

Words and Music by John Cooper, composer of the international success "IN SIAM." It has taken the country by storm since it was first introduced thru the columns of the Saturday Evening Post. A clean lyric and a haunting melody that will stay with you. You will want this song—send for it TODAY! Price 15c. per copy, postpaid.

COMMON OYSTERS, One-Step

by John Cooper, is an extremely catchy and clever satire on Rubinstein's "Kamenoi Ostrow." We admit, it is not easy to play at first sight, but amply rewards patience and time required in mastering its wonderful measures. Price 30c. Orchestration 25c.

SUSAN DOOZAN, Song

Lyric by L. Frank Baum—Music by Byron Gay

Mr. Gay has written some immense "hits," including "Western Land," "The Vamp," "Sand Dunes," etc., therefore he needs no further introduction. In "Susan Doozan," his latest, Mr. Gay offers something distinctively different from anything he has written previously. Melodious and pleasing, it is destined to be the song of the decade. Price 30c. per copy; Orchestration 25c.
