Half the things you hear,
knew a friend of mine;
My, it's hard to stop;
When the cook needs some - thing quick Rang his lit - tle wif - ey up, Though it real - ly does - n't quite

On you we de - pend.
Can't get home, my dear,
al-ways tell the truth.
And but for you What would we do? You're more than just a 'Till ver-y late, So don't you wait, I've press - ing bus-'ness Un - eas-y lies the head that lies, In - side the lit - tle friend. We love your wel-come call, here. But dar - ling lit - tle frau, booth. Each lit - tle tel - e - phone, You've made the world seem small,

Said, dear, where are you now?
Has mean-ings of its own.
