 Arr by CARL TISCHENDORF

There is a man at Al - ban - y whose life was wise - ly spent, He
 As Gov - er - nor of New York State his re cord is A 1, And was named by the Dem-o-crats for the role of Pres-i-dent, And ear-ly in Nov-em-ber, he'll his - to - ry will sure-ly show all the good deeds he has done, Let's rall-y 'round his ban-ner, and try to gain the throne, At the Cap - i - tol, in Wash - ing - ton, to call it home sweet home.

 help him win the fray, Then the fourth of March in Wash - ing - ton, will be Brown Der - by day.

CHORUS

If Smith sits in the Pres-i den - tial chair, De - If Smith sits in the Pres-i - den - tial chair, The moc - ra - cy will take its place right there, And An - ti's this and An - ti's that will swear, And rich and poor will be, Treat ed a like by he, If when that day has come, We'll know that tol - 'rance won, If

Smith sits in the Pres - i - den - tial chair.
 Smith sits in the Pres - i - den - tial chair.

Extra Choruses

If Smith sits in the Presidential chair,
Our flag will proudly float up in the air;
 America will be
 The real land of the free,
If Smith sits in the Presidential chair.

If Smith sits in the Presidential chair,
'Twill show that voters in this land are fair;
 And every mother's son
 For President can run,
If Smith sits in the Presidential chair.

If Smith sits in the Presidential chair,
Our hopes, our thoughts, our wishes will be there;
 No sect, no class, as one
 We'll go to Washington,
If Smith sits in the Presidential chair.
