bless them all I say. But there is one who morn and night, un known on land and sea. They shared the hard-ships of the men with ceas - ing - ly did work, In ru - in'd farms and bro - ken trench, they've out a sin - gle care, And now its on - ly right that in, our ne'er been known to shirk. From Mons up to the Rhine they've brought us joy, vic - t'ry they should share. Our Ar - my and our Na - vy wel - come you, L.H. L.H.

— The guardian an - gels of our sol - dier boys.
— Thru - out the land we'll sing your praises too.

CHORUS

Sal - va - tion Las - sie of mine, Sal - va - tion

Las - sie you're fine. With your smiling face and your un - i - form of blue You have shown the world just what the wo - men can do You gave the boys a help - ing hand.

Cheer'd them back from No Man's Land, When all tired out from fight - ing And marching ma-ny miles. You helped them with your pleasant welcome and your cheery smiles. Just like an An-gel youre di - vine

Sal - va - tion Las-sie of Mine. Mine.
