I have seen the world's art-ist-ic treas - ures, ———— Pic-tures that have How could an - y - one help but a - dore you, ———— Aft - er they've be - thrilled me through ———— But I must con - fess, held your smile? ———— Since the day I fell,

I for-get the rest, The mo-ment I com-pare them with you. ————
 'Neath it's mag-ic spell, I've known true hap-pi - ness all the while. ————

Chorus

Pret - ty as a pic - ture, — by a mas - ter hand, —

a tempo p-f

— Pret - ty as a pic - ture, — on - ly twice as grand. —

— On the day I claim you, — In my heart I'll frame you —

— If you let me name you — mine for - ev - er more. —

Pret-ty as a pic - ture, — in those eyes of blue, — Some-thing seems to whis - per — that you love me too. — You're an in-spir-at - ion, —

— sent from up a - bove, — Pret-ty as a pic - ture, —

— made for me to love. — Pret^{ty} as a love. —
