Some Day They're Coming Home Again

Words and Music
By HARRY HILBERT

Brightly (Not too fast)

ff

We've said Good-bye to those we love, Our boys have sailed a-way, And They're fight-ing side by side with those Whose cause we've made our own, And left us here at home to wait Their glad home com-ing day. They've gone to make the world a place for each will do his bit to push The Kai-ser from his throne. They're fight-ing 'neath the ban-ner which has men and not for slaves, And all our love went with them on their jour-ney o'er the waves.

nev-er known de-feat, And when it's way-ing in Ber-lin their job will be com-plete.
