Copyright MCMXX by M. Witmark & Sons

SILVER and gray and rose and gold,
My picture, mother, of you,
Eyes that have dimmed as you've grown old,
Living all you've been through,
And still your face grows dearer to me
With ev'ry silv'ry curl,
For the life you have lived
You lived all for me,
Just for me, dear Mother of Pearl,
All for me, my Mother of Pearl.

Once on a time my tiny hand
Your strong hand would enclose,
Now I would guard your small hand in mine
As tenderly as a rose,
And I would fold you in my arms,
My little white-haired girl,
For all that I am and all I can be
Is for you, dear Mother of Pearl,
All for you, my Mother of Pearl.
