They Had To Swim Back To The Shore

Words by JOE Mc CARTHY.

Music by JAMES V. MONACO.

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of four systems of piano accompaniment and vocal melody. The piano part uses a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The vocal part is written on a single treble clef staff. The lyrics are as follows:

There's a lov-ing cou-ple that I know_ Down to the beach ev-'ry Ev-'ry sin-gle min-ute of the day_ They're ei-ther swim-ing or sum-mer they go_ He's big and hand-some she's 'so cute_

lov-ing a-way_ They ride the don-keys shoot the chutes

Good-ness how he loves her in her bath-ing suit — You can al-ways
They don't care what hap-pens to their bath-ing suits — When the band is find them in the crowd — Fool-ing a - round — in the play - ing on the shore — They keep in time — with each sand and she'd say to him Come on let's go in tune soon she wants to be Way out in the sea

So he'd take her by the hand. — — — Then they'd In the wat - er there they spoon. — — — swim for a while — out in the o - cean Then down they would go — way down be - low —

No - bod - y knew — what they went down there to do — But they'd come up laugh - ing in a min - ute or two — Then they'd swim for a while — out in the o - cean and down to the bot - tom once more — When the wa - ter got rough

— she'd hol - ler John that's e - nough — then they had to swim back

1. to the shore. — Then they'd 2. shore. —

THE GREATEST BALLAD IN YEARS

By the boys who wrote "YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU"

Here are the words of the chorus and a few strains of the verse, of this wonderful song.

CHORUS:

The chairs in the parlor all miss you; the pictures all frown on the wall,
The flowers won't grow, for they seem to know; and the sunshine won't come in at all.
Our little canary won't sing any more; the folks ask me why you don't call.
Our whole house is blue, they want you, only you; but I miss you most of all.
