The Midnight Trot

(A Novelty One Step and Trot)

Allegro

(MAXIXE.)

GEORGE L. COBB

Composer of "Just For To-Night" etc

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It consists of five systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 2/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Allegro' and the dynamics are 'f' (forte) and 'l.h.' (left hand). A dotted line with the number '8' above it spans the first two measures of the first system. The second system starts with a dynamic marking of 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The third system continues the piece with various chordal textures. The fourth system features a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand. The fifth system concludes with a first ending (marked '1') and a second ending (marked '2'). The piece ends with a final chord and a fermata.

The first system of music features a treble and bass clef. The treble clef part begins with a series of eighth-note chords, marked with a forte (ff) dynamic. The bass clef part provides a steady accompaniment with quarter notes and chords. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

The second system continues the piece with similar rhythmic patterns. The treble clef part has a more active melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The bass clef part continues with a consistent accompaniment.

The third system shows the continuation of the musical theme. The treble clef part features a mix of eighth-note chords and single notes. The bass clef part maintains the accompaniment.

The fourth system includes a first ending (marked '1') and a second ending (marked '2'). The treble clef part has a melodic line with eighth notes and a triplet of eighth notes. The bass clef part has a triplet of eighth notes. The piece concludes with a final chord marked ff.

The fifth system is marked 8va...ad lib and mf. The treble clef part features a melodic line with eighth notes and a triplet of eighth notes. The bass clef part has a steady accompaniment.

The sixth system continues the piece with a melodic line in the treble clef and accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature remains one flat.

Trio

The image displays a musical score for a piece titled "The Midnight Trot." The score is written in 4/4 time and is presented in a grand staff format, with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature consists of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piece begins with a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) in the first measure. The music is characterized by a steady, rhythmic accompaniment in the bass line, often using chords and single notes. The treble line features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often with slurs and accents. There are several dynamic markings throughout the score, including fz (forzando) and f (forte). The score concludes with a triplet of eighth notes in the bass line and a final chord in the treble line.

"GREATEST SONG SINCE THE WORLD FAMOUS ROSARY" "YOU'RE THE DAWN OF A PERFECT DAY"

By that Well-Known Writer W. R. WILLIAMS

ABOUT once in every twenty years or so, some song is written that startles the world—Nobody knows "how it happened or whence it came"—but it gets here just the same. Some songs are "made" by the Publishers spending thousands of dollars to boom and push them just like "Patent Medicine"—but others "just happen"—and work their own way into our hearts without any of us knowing or realizing anything about the strange phenomena. This new song "Your the Dawn of a Perfect Day"—is one of this kind—born of an inspiration it blooms and blossoms for us all, creeping silently (as it were) into our hearts, bringing us at all times, peace and consolation. This song appeals strongly to those of refined taste—the lyric is perfect and the melody is both restful and beautiful, and no home collection will be complete without this song;—To have a copy in your home means you understand and appreciate refinement, and we suggest if this song appeals to you as it does to us, that you send a copy, to some friend who maybe has not heard from you in a long, long time. By doing that we will all feel better. Life is short and fleeting—so we should do these little things as we go along. This song is published in many keys—for all instruments, solos, etc., quartettes and bands—

"YOUR THE DAWN OF A PERFECT DAY" will live till the end of time.

WE all know there are lots of wonderful Irish songs—there always were, and always will be. We have published a few, but right now we think we have the "best ever" Irish ballad. You know the "Little Bit of Heaven" song?—Well we think this song "IRELAND I HEAR YOU CALLING" is just about as good, and certainly a song that every one with a real heart must sing. It's just a little bit of truth about old Ireland, and just what we love to hear, and set to a wonderful melody. This is a song that will live, and you'll make no mistake in adding this one to your home collection.

"WHEN I BID THE WORLD GOOD-BYE"

THERE are lots of beautiful songs written, and lots of them published every year—we have published many of them ourselves, so we feel we know a good one when we see it. In this new one we think we have not only a good ballad, but a "great" ballad, we think it's one of the best that W. R. Williams has ever written. The theme of this new ballad is that life as we find it, is so wonderful, so beautiful, and there is so much real joy in living, that no matter what the future may hold in store for us, "All joy fades away in the thought of the day when I bid the world good-bye." This song we consider a worthy companion to "YOU'RE THE DAWN OF A PERFECT DAY"—one of the biggest steady sellers on the market—also by W. R. Williams. The title page of "WHEN I BID THE WORD GOOD-BYE" is also a most artistic creation;—in fact, this beautiful song in every way is a great credit to any home, for it shows a taste of refinement in your selections.

5 GREAT SONGS ON THIS PAGE!

"IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR"

NEVER in my recollection has the United States of America been so "united" on any one subject, as they are right now on "Preparedness." The old saying "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is indeed true in this case, for after the lesson we have been learning, the past two years, from Europe's most cruel war, we must know that a mighty nation like ours—the U. S. A.—must have mighty and ample protection. That one word PROTECTION has always been the keystone of this country's success in the past, and PROTECTION in its every meaning, is the one thing that will continue to make this country the greatest in the world. Everybody that's anybody is "breathing" the "spirit of '76" and "In Time of Peace Prepare for War"—and we have the one important song—a New National song that is going to help the cause. We're going to sing it in halls and theatres, and the children are going to pick it up, and they will, we hope, be singing it in the Public Schools, for it's "from the Public Schools of to-day we must find our real Americans of the future." Anything we can do to instill into the rising generations the same kind of patriotism that has made this country world famous, is a good work—and a great work—and we can all help in this mighty work by boosting this one big idea of the hour—"In Time of Peace Prepare for War"—get a copy and see that the children learn to sing it—that's the way to carry it along. You can secure copies of this song by sending Fifteen cents to WILL ROSSITER, "The Chicago Publisher."

"YOU CAN'T MEND A BROKEN HEART" VERY LATEST BALLAD "HIT" BY SHELTON BROOKS.

THIS is a song that appeals instantly to us all—just a bit of every day life woven into a pretty lyric and tuneful melody, with a finish at the end of the chorus that all singers love & one that every audience applauds. Shelton Brooks has written several big "hits" in the past, but this new ballad, as a steady home seller, is going to pass 'em all.
