Glendon Tour: A Walk Through History

Good evening and welcome to Glendon Tour: A Walk Through History. This theatrical performance about Glendon College and its idyllic grounds was devised by the students in the course DRST3210: Theatre Performance Outdoors. Each station of Glendon Tour is based on documentary research conducted at the Leslie Frost Library. Research topics included natural conservation on campus, Glendon Hall (also known as “The Manor”), the Wood family (Glendon's owner before it became a university), the first years of York University/Glendon College, as well as TV and film productions on campus. On behalf of the students in the course, I wish you bon spectacle!

Gabrielle Houle, Ph.D.

Instructor of DRST3210: Theatre Performance Outdoors
