The musical score is arranged in four systems. Each system consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano accompaniment is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The first system is an instrumental introduction marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system begins the vocal entry with lyrics: "Say Broth-er Bills I must ad - mit we've had a jol - ly night, Your Its Broth-er Brown from Fris - co town, meet Jones from num - ber one, With". The third system continues the lyrics: "lodge is sim - ply great, you boys have treat - ed me all right, — Be - Broth - er Green from New Or - leans, and Smith from Wash - ing - ton, — Just". The fourth system concludes the lyrics: "fore I leave to get my train. I've just a word to say Where throw your grips down an y - where, and join us in a smile, We'll". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.
