p I've of-ten wonder'd if some day I'd find, The girl, the one I've known in dreams.

As time went on, the thought, I'd nev-er find her, Turned days to years, it seemed.

The mo-ment that I pressed your hand, dear. 'Twas then I knew, what was to be. For, at once my heart thrilled, with a love that was new, 'Cause I felt, my love dream, had come true.

CHORUS

Rubato

The bells are ring - ing, The birds are sing-ing, They seem to know, I've found the an-swer to my dreams. No more I'll long, — No more I'll sigh, — Now that you, my dar-ling dream is nigh. — My heart, dear, — will be for - ev - er true. My love, dear, — will be for you, all for you. Hark while I sing, — My song to you, — For you're the an - swer, — to my love dreams —

rit. molto rit.
