

Sing it

Spring it

SPRINGTIME

Featured by

IS LOVIN' TIME

BY

Lillian Pool Specht.

5

Published by Chicago Music Company,
CHICAGO.

"SPRING-TIME is LOVIN'-TIME"

Words & Music
by LILLIAN POOLE SPECHT.

Moderato.

Intro.

Till voice

Slowly. p

Week a - go I quar - ried with my Hon - ey Lu:
Moon kept on a - sail - ing in the star - ry sky,

mf a tempo

Wan - dered round, I did - nt know what else to do,
Turned to go past Lu - lus, when I heard a sigh,

Ran up - on a cou - ple spoon - ing 'neath a tree,
Seemed that I could hear some - one a - call - ing me,

Made me kind of lone - some thought of Lu and me.
Heard a step be - hind me and I turned to see.

Turned a cor - ner thought that I'd get out of sight,
Knew it was my ba - by and I held her tight,

Saw an - o - ther cou - ple in the bright moon - light.
Proved to her I loved her and my way was right,

Ev - 'ry time I dodged to try to get a - way,
 Saun - tered off to - ge - ther 'neath the stars a - bove.

Met an - o - ther cou - ple and they seemed to say:
 All the world looks ro - sy when a man's in love.

rit. - - -

CHORUS. Slowly

"Spring-time is lov - in' time for all cre - a - tion, Moon - nights just

p

fill your heart with sweet e - la - tion. E - ven birds are mate - ing in the trees a - bove Can't go an - y where but you hear, love, love, love, I'm lone - ly, I could-nt stand to live like this, The whole world re - volves up - on my Lu - lu's kiss. I guess I feel more lone-ly on such nights because, Spring-time is lov - in' time. time.

NEW ONES THAT ARE UP-TO-DATE

Junetime

A Great Summer Song

My Girl of Long Ago

No Man's Land

Above pieces by

JNO. J. SOURWINE

Arranged by

FRED ERICKSON

Author of the celebrated

Ideal Two-Step

